Open Access History

- 2006: EPrints repository for Glasgow 'Enlighten' launched
<http://eprints.gla.ac.uk/3718/1/3718.pdf>
- 2008: Publications Policy mandates deposit in repository
- 2010: EPrints repository linked to the Research System to bring in awards
- 2012: Valerie joined library from Research & Enterprise tasked with responding to new OA requirements.
- 2013: Government Department for Business, Innovation, & Skills provided some Universities pump-priming for open access. Moved to authors inform us of publications at acceptance.

Open Access History

- 2013: Library took on existing Wellcome Trust OA management and new Research Council's UK requirements
- 2014: Mick started at the University of Glasgow
- 2015: After successful testing we closed down the spreadsheets and logged all of our information on EPrints – huge time savings and better reporting.
- 2015: Preparations for UK Research Excellence Framework (REF) Open Access Requirements
- 2016: REF requirements for papers accepted from 1st April

Deposit Exceptions

Deposit exception:

- UNSPECIFIED
- a. The individual whose output is being submitted to the REF was unable to secure the use of a repository at the point of acceptance.
- b. The individual whose output is being submitted to the REF experienced a delay in securing the final peer-reviewed text (for instance, where a paper has multiple authors).
- c. The individual whose output is being submitted to the REF was not employed by a UK HEI at the time of submission for publication.
- d. It would be unlawful to deposit, or request the deposit of, the output.
- e. Depositing the output would present a security risk.
- f. The output was published as 'gold' open access (for example, RCUK-funded projects where an open access article processing charge has been paid).
